SARATOGA RACES.

Fifth Day of the Second Regular Meeting of the Saratoga Association.

FOUR WELL CONTESTED RACES.

Virginius, Zoo Zoo, Spartan and Rhadamanthus the Winners.

AN ELEGANT AUDIENCE.

SARATOGA, August 21, 1877. This was another charming day and the track in nost excellent condition for racing. Fast time was nticipated and resilzed, as all the flyers engaged in he several events were "troubled with speed."

The attendance was very fashionable, and the ladies seemed perfectly wild with the result of each event, udging from their demonstrations as the horses came up to the winning post.

The Saratoga Association has been forced by the close finishes of the horses during this meeting to give the spectators at once the winner, instead of, as fore, waiting for the weighing and other delays, conequent at the finish of a race. The name of the horse that passes under the wire first will be immediately given to the public on a black board. The horse named, however, may not be after all the winning one, as he may not bring his weight nome, or may have other thing to disqualify. But betting in future will be on which is first one under the string, irrespective

June of any race closed in 1877, at any other than the Saratoga course, to carry seven pounds extra. Beaten maidens allowed, if four years or under, four pounds; if five years or upward, ten pounds; one mile and an eighth. For this race four came to the post. These were J. E. Brewster & Co.'s black colt Virginius, by Virgil-Lute, 4 years old, carrying 118 ibs.; L. Hare's bay colt Henry Owens, by Gilroy, dam by Star Davis, 4 years old, 118 los.; Oden Howie's chestnut filly Oriole, by Kingfisher-My Maryland, 3 years old, 98 lbs., and Dixon & Wimmer's cheatnut filly Bradamante, by War Dance-Brenna, 3 years Bradamante was the favorite, notwithstanding that Oriole beat her a few days since easily; but Bradamante had then on her back a penalty of seven pounds. She sold in the pools to-day for $200, Orioie for $165, Virginius for $150 and Henry Owens for $50. The horses had a capital start, Bradamante baving a slight lead, Virginius second, Henry Owens third, Oriole fourth. When the quarter reached the judges' stand Brademante was leading a neck, Virginius a neck in advance of Henry Owens, Oriole lapped on the latter, but in "the pocket," being close to the fence. Going sround the upper turn, Sayres, on Brademante, pulled out and let Oriole take the lead, and when the norses reached the quarter pole she had a length and a half the best of the battle, Brademane second, a length in advance of Henry Owens, who was a neck in advance of Virginius. Going down the onekstretch Oriole snowed the way, Brademanne second, the other two side and side. As the fillies passed the half mile pole Oriole had Brademante at her flanks, with Virginius close up, Henry Owens being in company that he could not keep up with when they were doing in good style. Brademante pressed Oriole on the lower turn, and came into the homestretch with her head at the withers of the Maryland filly. Virginius was within striking distance at the time, on the extreme outside. When the flyers got into straight on the homestretch Brademante soon disposed of Oriole, and appeared to every eye a winner of the race. Barbee, however, with his grand judge of pace, at the time moment brought Virginius up fairly flying and landed him a winner by about half a length. Oriole was three lengths away, Henry Owens eight or ten lengths behind. Time, 1:57%.

Vermont, by Virgii—Nannie Butler. Zoo Zoo was the lavorite over the field at 100 to 20. Vermont had the best of the start, because none of the others wanted the lead. Zoo Zoo, pulled double, took second place, Wash Booth third. Cuba tourth, also pulled double. Rudning around the lower turn at a moderate pace, Vermont ied half a length, cuba taking second bloot fourth. Vermont showed the way up the homestretch and led a length at the Judges' stand, Cuba second, pulled double, Zeo Zoo two lengths technol,

This stake closed with thirty five nominations, of which the following were all that came to the post:—P. Lordiard's bay colt. Sparten, by Lexington.—Jule Horton, carrying 113 lbs.; and J. A. Grunstead's bay colt, by Alarin, dam by Lexington. Spartan was the favorite at 100 to 30 just before the start. After a little "circus" the colts were started on even terms, and ran yoked up the shute. As they turned into the regular track at the haif-mile pole they were parallel, but Spartan was running under a pull and at his case, while the other was laboring badly. Near the three-quarter pole, when they were head and head, Sayres applied the why to the Alarm colt. The youngsters came into the homestretch neck and neck, but it was on sufferance, as the Lexington seemed to be playing with the other. A strong gallep up the homestretch landed spartan the winner by two lengths, in 1 192. The stake was worth $1,425.

Before the second heat Joseph A., who had shown considerable speed, sold for $30; Champion, Jr., $20; field, $15. The heat was more interesting Champion, Jr., took the lead from the Roman Chief second, two longths in advance of Joseph A. At the half Champion, Jr., heid his lead, but

At the half Champion, Jr., held his lead, but Joseph A., who had lapped Roman Chief, soon passed him, and made a hard fight for the heat, and had nearly got on even terms with Champion, Jr., within a hundred yards of the wire when he broke, and Champion, Jr., took the heat in 2:27 M.

For the third heat Champion, Jr., was barred in the betting and Dame Trot sold favorite for second place. Dame Trot and Champion, Jr., went on together to the quarter pole where the stallon was a neck ahead. At the half he was a length shead and then Joseph A. came on fast and entered the homestretch on even terms with the stallion. Near the wire agent with the stallion. Near the wire in Joseph A. showed half a length in advance, but broke and caught just before reaching the score, which he crossed a neck shead in 2:24. On account of his run the judges declared it a dead heat.

Dame Trot made the trotting in the fourth heat to the quarter pole, with Arnold second and Joseph A. last. Champion, Jr., made a had break after passing the quarter, and took last place while Joseph A. passed the others, and at the three-quarter pole led by a length from Arnold, Champion, Jr., at Arnold's wheel, having trotted fast since the break. Coming home the stallion closed up fast, and Joseph A. made a break near the score and ran over a longth shead in 2:29. The judges gave the heat to Champion, Jr. The winner is a beanufful brown stallion, six years old, by Champion, owned by Minford & Layton, of Dutchess County Stock farm, and is a very promising horse.

AQUATICS AT YONKERS.

The members of the Palisade Bost Club concluded the programme of their annual regatta at Yonkers last evening, with two contests between senior and Friday, owing to the water being too rough. Both races were for gold medals, that of the seniors having additional attraction in embracing the championship also. The steambont City of Chester, carrying members of the club and their friends, accompanied the contestants over the course, which was from a stakeboat nearly opposite Monnt St. Vincent to Glenwood, a distance of two miles up the river. In the scaler race there were three contestants—R. J. Jackson, A. Moffat and C. C. Shaw. After a fair start the two former kept well together, leading Shaw by a few lengths. When about two-thirds over the course, however, Jackson pulled out of the race, owing to a sudden pain in his shoulder. After this Moffat won a comparatively easy victory, reaching the winning boat about five lengths ahead of Shaw. Time, 11m. 59-3g. The junior race was contested by 6. De F. Underthil and H. T. Keysar, who, after the word was given, succeeded in keeping together, bow and bow, for nearly the entire distance, the former ultimately coming in less than a length ahead of his competitor. Time, 12m. 20s. At the conclusion of the races the medals were formally presented to the victors at the Palisade Club House. also. The steamboat City of Chester, carrying member.

balls, hit a long line ball to right field, which struck the platform and bounded off toward centre field, with a pretty bit to centre field, sending Holdsworth home and giving the Hartfords an earned run to inning. Latham went out on a foul fly to Ferguson, Hague made a safe base hit, and Hall went out on a high fly to centre field. While Devlin was at the bat Hague tried to steal to second, but was thrown out by Allison to Burdock. In the second inning the Hartfords were disposed of in one, two, three order, and the Louisvilles made another attempt to soore. Hall, the first striker, was called-out on strikes while waiting for a ball to suit him. Devin and Shaffer each made safe hits and were each advanced a base on Gerhardt's sacrifice hit. Nichols closed this inning, however, by lifting a ground ball to Start. Larkin led off in the third inning for the Hartfords, with a two base hit. Burdock followed with a clean single baser, and Holdsworth with another three base hit to right field, giving the Hartfords two more carned runs. Start went out at first base, and Holdsworth scored on Carey's hit, adding the fourth carned run to the Hartfords' score. The fourth, fifth and sixth linnings were closely contested, no runs being scored, although good attempts were made by both sides. In the seventh the Hartfords scored three runs by careful batting assisted by errors, only one of which, however, was carned. The fielding during the remainder of the game was very sharp on both sides. Following is the score:—

Mr. Muller mar School No. 8, at No. 66 Grand street. Mr. Muller chose the competitive method instead of nominating any one to the vacancy, as he wished every school boy in the district to have a chance in winning the prize. The offer was, therefore, extended to all schools, private as well as public, in the district, which embraces ten public schools. The examining committee solected were Samuel Ayres, vice principal of Grammar School No. 58; Jerome Buck, attorney-at-law, and J. N. Morrill, M. D. As Mr. Buck was found to be at Saratoga, Mr. Jacob A. Gross, of No. 3 Chambers street, was chosen in his place. This was in accordance with Mr. Muller's expressed wish that the boys should be examined by a teacher, a member of the legal profession, and one of the medical profession. At the appointed hour fourteen boys had assembled to compete for the cadetthe medical profession. At the appointed hour fourthe medical profession. At the appointed hour fourteen boys had assembled to compete for the cadetship. Of these one was rejected by the examining surgeon and two had to be dismissed as being too young, the limits in respect to age being seventeen and twenty-two. Of the cleven boys examined five were from St. Poter's parochial senoot, two from St. Patrick's, and one from each of Grammar schools Nos. 5, 24, 29 and 35. Brother Chronian, of Newark, a director of the Christian Brothers, had been invited to assist at the examination and was present. Lieutenant Berry, United States Army, also occupied a seat on the platform, but Mr.
Nicholas Muller did not make his appearance. The boys were first examined in arithmetic and writing. An oral examination in reading followed, and thon written examinations in spelling and grammar, closing with oral examination in goography and history. J. Glifroy, who came to the examination for his own satisfaction, in order to learn his standing. Martin Knastler and Thomas F. Coniey, who were rejected for being under age, also preferred
to test their strength in the examination.

The papers were all completed about seven o'clock.
The Board of Examiners met at the Union Square
Hotel at eight o'clock and worked until after midnight examining the exercises of the candidates. One of them, Charles A. Minnle, the olored boy from frammar School No. 29, of the First ward, where Mr.
Thomas O'Brien is principal, received a maximum of 565 points out of a possible 600, or 95 per cent of the

ARCHBISHOP BAYLEY'S RETURN.

Among the arrivals in this city yesterday by the Cunard steamship Russia was the venerable Arch bishop Bayley, of Baltimore, who, it will be remem-bered, went to Europe several months since to recruit his failing health. He was accompanied on his home-ward journey by his vicar general, Father McManus, Bisnop McIneracy, of Albany, and his secretary, Rev. Mr. Ubaldo; Rev. Father McMurray, of Scranton; Mr. Ubaldo; Rev. Father McMurray, of Scranton; Rev. A. J. McConomy, secretary and chanceller of the archdiocess of Philadelphia; Father Conroy, of New York, recently ordained in Rome, and Father Magnire, of Boston. The party left Queenstown on the 12th inst. and report having had a delightfus voyage. The health of the venerable Archbishop is not much improved by his European travel. He was very sick at intervals during the voyage, and the passengers, irrespective of creed, were quite solicitous for his welfare. On his arrival here he proceeded to Scton Hail, where he will remain for a month. Meanwhile the affairs of the archdiocese or Baltimore, which he presided over, will be conducted by the Right Rev. Coadjutor Bishop Gibbons, who has had charge during the Archbishop's absence. The reverend clergy who accompanied the Archbishop enjoyed a pleasant European tour, and are at present stopping in this city. They will leave for their respective homes in a few days.
